LATONIA FAVORED.

It is pleasing to note that the turfmen of the west have accorded to the recently closed stakes of the Latonia Jockey Club a measure of patronage that promises to replace the club in its old time important place in the list of western racing organizations. Encouraging signs of a revival of interest in racing at Cincinnati were not lacking last fall when the club gave its closing meeting of the year and with such fine entries to serve as attractions it seems probable that the coming spring meeting will be so successful as to restore the club to well deserved prosperity. The entries received are greatly in excess of those of recent years, being as follows:

Clipsetta Stakes, two-year-old fillies, five furlongs.....	89
Harold Stakes, two-year-old colts, five furlongs.....	85
Cincinnati Trophy, two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs.....	102
Brewers' Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs.....	83
Decoration Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, one mile and a quarter.....	50
Merchants' Selling Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, one mile.....	86
Hotel Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, one mile.....	66
Latonia Derby (1903).....	112
Latonia Oaks (1903).....	82
Total.....	755

Commenting on this entry list, one of the Cincinnati newspapers said: "Very interesting and particularly gratifying is a comparison of the entry lists for the coming meeting at Latonia with those of the two previous years. Last year in addition to the Derby and Oaks which are to be run this spring, only four stakes were opened. The Derby received 58 nominations and the Oaks 52. The Clipsetta closed with 56 and the Harold 65. The Cincinnati Hotel Stakes received only 42 and the Tobacco, which is now the Merchants', had but 56. In 1900 the Derby (which was run last year) closed with 78 and the Oaks with 48. The Clipsetta had 48, the Harold 44, the Covington Spring Selling Stakes 42, the Tobacco 67 and the Turf Congress Handicap 42."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

August Belmont has entered upon an experiment which may sooner or later result in the abandonment of Long Island as a place for wintering race horses by all wealthy owners. He has built a mile track, with a comfortable set of stables at Garnet, S. C., and moved his entire string there from Babylon. Among the horses transferred were the Hastings colts Masterman and Leonid, the speedy filly Amicitia and a number of two-year-olds bred at the Nursery Stud.

Masterman is Mr. Belmont's most promising three-year-old, and Amicitia, if she should take a growing streak, is apt to develop into a first rate three-year-old filly. She won several valuable filly stakes last spring in the very best eastern company and showed speed of a high order. Not one of these horses will start north again until the beginning of the Washington Jockey Club's spring session at Benning, which will inaugurate the Jockey Club's racing season for 1902. Mr. Belmont's object in shipping south was to take advantage of the early southern spring and get his horses in condition for the Washington and Westchester spring sessions, especially the latter. Mr. Belmont has felt, ever

Went to post at 2:14. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily. The Weaver loafed under Bullman nearly all the way and had to be shaken up at the end, but was much the best. Bassenzo ran well and continues to show steady improvement, speed and stamina. Senator Bruce broke badly and tired after a fast move in the first half. Sir Claud and Discovery went fairly well.

Bassenzo, show, out. Senator Bruce, show, out.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Buck Taylor got off poorly but quickly joined issue with El Rey and skillful management and the best going enabled him to win. El Rey ran well but Ranch finished in the worst going with him. Alturas did well but tired in the last quarter. The others were beaten off.

Winner—B. g. by Foul Shot—Dulcie Larondie.
Went to post at 3:09. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Killdoo broke flatfooted but quickly raced into the lead and practically cantered thereafter and outclassed the field. Elkarn beat the gate and was a lucky second. Courtier, off badly and messed about, closed a big gap and was probably second best. Rasp was handicapped by the going but went well. Casdale wants soft mud.

Scratched—30607 Rinaldo II., 113; 30623 Breton, 101.

Overweights—Elkarn, 1 pound; Idalette, 3.

Winner—Ch. h. by Tenny—Redworth Rose.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Redwald, a wonder on such a difficult and slow track, waited under a stiff pull to the far turn, where he cantered to the front and won easily. February came through next to the rail in the stretch, caught the pacemakers tiring at the end, was easily second best and will probably beat good ones on a fast track. John Peters tired in the sticky and holding track, but struggled in gamely. Pompino quit in the stretch and prefers a sloppy or fast track, besides was probably short. Castake ran a steady race and finished well.

Scratched—22400 Fonsovannah, 107.

Overweights—February, 1 pound; John Peters, 2.

Redwald, show, 1 to 3. February, show, 2½ to 1. John Peters, show, out. Pompino, show, 1 to 3.

Time, 26½, 54½, 1:22, 1:51, 2:05.

Winner—Ch. h. by Brutus—Nerva.
Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. The Fretter trailed behind the pacemakers to the stretch turn, where he moved up, drawing to the front in company with Wolhurst and, being skillfully handled, downed the latter after a long drive. Wolhurst swerved into the deepest going right at the end and suffered from a weakly ridden finish. Formero was going well in hand to the stretch, where he tired unexpectedly and was probably short. He requires constant drumming to be fit. Marcato is overdone and soon ceased to be a contender.

No show betting on first three.

Went to post at 4:21. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lode Star is in rare form, ran into the lead on the stretch turn like a flash and won going away. Hungarian was luckily placed and followed close on the heels of the winner on the stretch turn but was handicapped by an incompetent rider or he might have won. Quiz ran a consistent and game race. Flamero tired in the stretch, due to the very holding going. Rush Fields was outrun from the start. Ned Dennis went well for six furlongs.

Winner—B. f. by Siddartha—Miss Bowling.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Belle of Elgin showed decided improvement and came away from the others with ease in the stretch run. Bertha Nell finished fast and caught Lady Contrary tiring. The latter showed much improvement and was probably used too much in the first part of the race. Judge Magee closed a big gap in the run home. Kiss Quick showed speed, but quit in the stretch drive.

Winner—B. g. by Barnes—Betty W.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Trebor finished fast and strongly and got up in the last few strides, but Tros should have won. He tried to run out on the first turn and went to the extreme outside and was then taken the longest way around in the middle of the backstretch. He faltered and hung when it came to a drive in the stretch. Poyntz showed speed to the stretch, where he quit. Icon and Eight Bells quit early in the race.

Scratched—30499 Jim Nap, 104; (30322) Shut Up, 103; 30519 Albert F. Dewey, 99.

Winner—B. g. by Cortez—Mary Williams.

Went to post at 3:04. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Sim W. displayed a touch of his old time form, showed the most speed throughout and was lucky. Wiedemann ran to his best form and was tiring at the end. Miss Conrad should probably have won. She was tangled up at the start, interfered with and cut off on the backstretch several times and was pinned in next to the inner rail in the stretch. She was fast catching Wiedemann when she got clear. Laureatea and Masterful tired. Aberdale stumbled at the start, throwing his rider.

Sim W., show, 3 to 5. Wiedemann, show, 4 to 5. Miss Conrad, show, 3 to 1. Lofter, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Speculator—Grannie A.

Went to post at 3:39. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Grantor was best, showed the most speed and was never in danger. Johnny McCartney came very strongly in the last sixteenth. Annoy was poorly handled. Walsh tried to place him and got into a pocket and had to bump his way through at the head of the stretch. Reseda was given a weak ride and kept back too long. Lady Alberta tired.

Overweights—Annoy, 1 1/2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g. by St. Florian—Prosperity.

Went to post at 4:08. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Sir Florian was off running, ran to his best form and just managed to last long enough. Death was cut off at the start. Odum stopped riding him at the sixteenth post but started to work again. Death responded immediately and finished gamely. He was ridden with poor judgement and had Odum persevered he would have won. Sir Florian raced Hullum and Divonne into submission. The former fully ran his race and the latter is worth remembering. Monometallist almost fell at the start.

Overweights—Sir Florian, 1 pound; Death, 4; Ben Hullum, 1; Choice, 4.

Winner—B. f. by Juvenal—Judy.

Went to post at 4:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Orla showed superior speed, raced Nyx to defeat in the first five furlongs and had things all her own way after that. Lady Kent and John Grigsby were under a hard drive all through the last quarter. The latter was going strongest and was fast catching the leaders. Nyx fell away fast when beaten. Boomerack was cut off just after the start and ran much below his best form.

Scratched—30568 Zack Ford, 107; 30693 Ernest Parham, 98; 30655 Rose of May, 93.

Winner—B. m. by Deceiver—Inquiry.

Went to post at 3:04. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Glad Hand out-classed her field and, aided by a good ride, won as her rider pleased. Fred Graft came fast under punishment in the stretch. Toad Rainey was under pressure all the way. Prosit tired in the last twenty yards, after running well in the first part. Sylvan Dell had a stormy passage. With clear sailing he would have been second. Janie Seay tired, as usual, after showing early speed.

Glad Hand, show, out. Fred Graft, show, 3 to 2. Toad Rainey, show, 6 to 5. Sylvan Dell, show, out.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

since he took over the management of the Westchester Racing Association and the Washington Jockey Club's affairs, that it was his duty to put his best foot forward at Bennings and Morris Park, but he has been unable to do it effectually. The Long Island climate is against the early development of race horses. Up to the middle of May there are two many sudden changes.—Daily America.

A number of jockeys sailed for France yesterday on the Kaiser Wilhelm. Milton Henry headed the party. He is under engagement to ride for the Rothschild stable. Patsy Freeman, Burt Knapp, Archie McIntyre and Vandusen also left on the same boat. Jimmy Michael, the bicycle rider, sailed with the crowd and will ride horses in future for Charron & Debray. Henry says that Michael can outride many of the jockeys in France and ought to be a success over there. Henry Spencer, who will ride for the Keenes in England this year, said the other day that he would be able to ride much lighter than a year ago. He said that in the Turkish bath last week he weighed under 112 pounds and never felt better in his life. Spencer, it is freely predicted, will make a great hit on the other side, for there is no better jockey in the profession than "the iceman" when he wants to ride.

Tarbolton, b. h. 8, by Ayrshire—Radiancey, one of the stallions that Mr. J. N. Camden, Jr., purchased in England to take the place of the dead Esher has arrived at Hartland Stud, Versailles, Ky. The horse sustained a flesh wound on the head from the pitching of the vessel on the voyage from Liverpool, but the injury is not at all serious. Mr. Camden bought Tarbolton from the Russian Prince, Soltysoff. The other stallion he bought in England, Mazagan, arrived at Versailles two weeks ago.

Miles Finlen owns several of the first of the get of V. C. Whitney's $60,000 stallion Hamburg. He purchased them as yearlings last spring at the Marcus Daly sale. The youngsters have developed into fine two-year-olds and may reward Mr. Finlen handsomely. He has named them as follows: Cologne, c, by Hamburg—Cockernony; Velvo, br. c, by Hamburg—Dartaway; Unteroock, ch. f, by Hamburg—Petticoat; Mamari, ch. f, by Hamburg—Miserere. They are being trained by William Hueston and have shown some fast trials.
